WELCOME TO ENERGY OCEANIA 2025

The ENERGY OCEANIA committee is delighted to welcome clean energy advocates, professionals, and innovators from across the globe to join us at the 6th International Conference on Global Renewable Energy, taking place from December 8–10, 2025, in Melbourne, Australia.

Energy Oceania 2025 stands at the forefront of advancing dialogue and innovation through one of the most anticipated Renewable Energy Conferences of the year. With a dynamic agenda filled with engaging presentations, stimulating panel discussions, and global expertise, this flagship event will spotlight the latest technologies, trends, and challenges in the sustainable energy landscape.

As a premier platform among Global Renewable Energy Conferences, Energy Oceania 2025 unites leading scientists, researchers, engineers, policymakers, industry leaders, entrepreneurs, and investors to exchange groundbreaking ideas, foster collaborations, and drive the momentum for a sustainable energy future. Participants will explore innovative concepts, network through B2B meetings, and seize opportunities to create lasting partnerships in the field of renewable and sustainable energy.

Join us for three enriching days of knowledge sharing, networking, and inspiration in the heart of Melbourne—a vibrant, multicultural city brimming with artistic flair, lush green parks, world-class dining, and a rich cultural scene that gives an experience beyond words.

Fuel your passion for a cleaner tomorrow at one of the most impactful Energy Meetings and Energy Conferences of 2025—Energy Oceania.
